FROM FOREST CITY.

Interesting News Gathered by Our Lively Correspondent.

FOREST CITY, Jan. 31.—Attorney W. D. Lusk, of Montrose, formerly president of the Montrose division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, spent yesterday at this place with Attorney A. M. O'Donnell.

One of the worst snow storms since 1888 visited this place, commencing Monday at noon and continuing all day yesterday. About nine inches of the beautiful snow falls have fallen, flake after flake, snowcapping the surrounding mountains, filling the wild ravines, and presenting on all sides a beautiful scene, painted by a severe yet master artist, old winter.

The mine of the Elk Hill Coal company at Richmondville, about two miles from here, is working the best time of any in this section—nine hours per day during the week.

The Hillside Coal and Iron company will resume work tomorrow after being idle since Tuesday, Jan. 23.

Sunday evening, Feb. 4, the services at the Baptist church will be conducted under the auspices of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. It will be a missionary meeting.

The president of the county union will speak on "Origin and Work of the Society." The corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. P. Lappen, of local union, western Wayne and eastern Susquehanna counties, will read an essay on "Mission Work of Society."

Supervisor W. A. May, of Scranton, was in town today looking after the company's interests.

Tonsorial artist, J. W. Larabee, is moving his household goods into the rooms recently vacated by J. L. Westgate in B. Maxey's block.

Frank Sarafinick and Apollonia Yohanski were united in the bonds of holy matrimony at St. Agnes' church this morning by a Polish priest. Mr. Sarafinick is a well known butcher of this place. If the storm does not prevent, they intend to take a wedding trip to Simpson.

The following have been registered at that famed hostelry, the Forest House, during the past two days: Mrs. W. W. Williams, Montrose; C. R. Demoney, Deposit, N. Y.; John C. Miller, Easton; J. C. Bunnell, Scranton; G. V. Estabrook, Carbondale; W. D. Lusk, Montrose; Frank J. Campbell, Scranton; T. V. Powderly, jr., and I. J. Levene, of Carbondale.

THEY DESIRE ELECTRIC CARS.

Steps Taken at Forest City to Secure Rapid Transit. FOREST CITY, Jan. 31.—The borough officials will meet in session Monday night. The most important business of the evening will be in regard to the street railway.

If the company complies with the resolutions which were framed at the council's last meeting, undoubtedly the franchise will be granted by the council, as the majority of the people in this thriving borough are in favor of seeing the electric car running through our streets.

President J. W. Aitken, of the Traction company, is expected to be present at the meeting.

THOSE BALLET DRESSES.

MANAGER—How many trunks do you usually carry? MISS FOOT FLINGER—Oh, not any, I generally carry my dress in my pocket.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

SUCCESS OF THE DRAMA.

The Carbondale Amateurs Give a Very Creditable Performance. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 31.—This evening occurred the much heard of comedy drama by amateurs, entitled, "What to Do to Win Him." The event was under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the Trinity church, and was witnessed in Association hall, which was fitted up with a temporary stage for the occasion.

The attendance was very gratifying which will result in a neat sum being added to the building fund of the church. Aside from the cast who brought out the enjoyable comedy there was present Miss Ham, of Honesdale, who is an eloquent and unusual ability, also Miss Barnes, of Bismarck, Dakota, rendered a pleasing solo. Her orchestra was present, which was a happy feature of the evening.

Previous to the above entertainment was held in the adjoining rooms between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock an oyster supper, also after the entertainment supper was served.

DEMOCRATIC BOROUGH CAUCUS.

Democrats Meet and Nominate Officers, Indorsing Several Republicans. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONESDALE, Pa., Jan. 31.—The Democratic caucus was held last evening and officers were nominated to contest the coming election. The recent Republican caucus nominated a straight Republican ticket, and from the bluster of the Democrats it was supposed that a straight Democratic ticket would be put into the field.

Last night's work, however, showed a strong Republican aim at both ends of the ticket, which is as follows: Chief Burgess, E. H. Bauman, judge of election, T. Lincoln Medland, inspector of election, Michael J. Hanlan, high constable, R. W. Gresser, auditor, Fred J. Stone, justice of the peace, William Ham, tax collector, A. F. Voigt, school directors, Thomas Crossley, sr., Dr. Reed Burns, assistant assessors, Charles Spencer, Charles Rockwell, town council, Grant W. Lane, Benjamin Gardner, sr., T. D. O'Connor, C. M. Beitz, M. B. Allen.

Hon. Thomas J. Ham was chosen chairman and G. W. Lane and C. P. Eldred secretaries. This election board was appointed a committee to fill any vacancies that might occur in the nominations.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A Forest City Butcher's Three Mile Chase. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FOREST CITY, Pa., Jan. 31.—As George Kisthart, J. L. Westgate's trawler butcher, was delivering meat in the vicinity of Vandling, yesterday, he left the spirited team which was hitched to a sleigh having a canvas top on it, to go to a house to get a plate to put the meat on for a customer.

While he was returning to the sleigh a heavy gale of wind came which struck the canvas top squarely, turning the sleigh over on its side and frightening the horses before Mr. Kisthart could reach them.

The team was caught by a Carbondale party after having run nearly three miles. The sleigh was considerably damaged but the horses were uninjured. A cleaver, saw and steel were lost, which would be thankfully received by owner. The only complaint the driver could make was, that he felt a little tired after trying to keep pace with the runaway team.

DEATH OF MRS. DIKEMAN.

She Leaves a Little Boy Baby Only One Month Old. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PECKVILLE, Pa., Jan. 31.—The angel of death has again visited our midst and removed the beloved wife of Bert Dikeman, formerly Carrie A. Green. Mrs. Dikeman died at her home on Maple street on Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock after a short illness, aged 24 years 3 months and 9 days, leaving a husband and one child, a boy one month old.

The funeral services will be held at the Baptist church of this place on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. J. Guest. Interment will be made in Prospect cemetery.

SNOW ON THE L. & M.

The Montrose Feeder to the D. L. & W. Blocked. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

MONTROSE, Jan. 31.—The train on the Lackawanna and Montrose railroad encountered some large snow drifts on the return trip yesterday afternoon.

The cab windows were broken and the cab nearly filled with snow. The engineer experienced considerable difficulty in getting the train through the drifts upon the heavy grade near Heart Lake.

MISS CURRAN SUCCESSFUL.

She Wins the Contest at the Avoca Fair Over Two Competitors. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

AVOCA, Pa., Jan. 31.—There was the usual large attendance at St. Mary's fair on Tuesday evening. The contest between Miss Curran, Moore and Moran was decided in favor of Miss Curran, who collected the enormous sum of $1,710.65. Miss Moran $895.59 and Miss Curran $865.65. Among the other articles disposed of were St. Cecilia's picture to Miss B. Early, of Pittston; Father Crane's picture to M. McGowan; Mrs. Steever's printing to Miss Mary Riley, of Mill Creek.

The many friends of Miss Curran celebrated her victory with a grand social and banquet at O'Malley's opera house. Those who were present were Misses Anna Bergen, Lizzie McCloskey and Patrick Timlin and Will Bergen, Jernyn; Misses Agie Lynn, Marie and Kate Curran and P. J. Durkin, J. Harnet, B. E. and A. P. O'Brien, Mary and Lizzie Whalen, Ella Callahan, Mame Kearney, Katie Cannon, Bessie and Fannie Welber, Nellie Curran, and Hugh and Will Jennings, L. P. Nolan, Will Curran, H. M. H. E. J. Wurd, John McCourtney and T. J. O'Malley, Avoca.

NOTES FROM CARBONDALE.

An Early Morning Fire—The January Death Record—Personal News. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 31.—At an early hour this morning the fire alarm at No. 28 blew for a fire in the Third ward. The fire companies were soon flying in that direction. The alarm was far the lookout on Pike street, when finding the blaze out of the fire limit and knowing their assistance would not be needed, they retraced their tracks to the engine houses.

During the month of January twenty persons died in this city. Of this number, fourteen were interred here and six in other towns. The bodies of six persons who died in neighboring towns were interred here, making a total number buried in this place during the month past, reach twenty. The greater portion of the deaths were among the adults.

AN EFFECTIVE EVANGELIST.

The Pulpit Utterances of Rev. Mr. Harris Excite Admiration. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

VANDLING, Pa., Jan. 31.—R. N. Harris, evangelist, of West Pittston, occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church at Vandling on Sunday last. The building was packed to its utmost capacity, and at the evening services many were unable to gain admission. The service closed by a number signifying their intention to enter upon a Christian life.

Evangelist Harris is a plain speaker and possesses rare gifts for winning the hearts of all those he may come in contact with and every effort seems to bring forth a blessing. Mr. Harris occupied this pulpit some weeks ago and the impression was such to the people of this place as to extend to him a unanimous call to become their pastor, and on Saturday evening last at a meeting of the board of officers, Mr. Harris, who was present, refused with regret to accept the call due to the fact of his recent labors as an evangelist among some of the nearby churches at Forest City.

Blood Poisoning

Intense Suffering 11 Years.

Hood's Healed the Sore in Seven Weeks—A Perfect Cure.

"I will recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as first-class. It has proved its merits to us. Twelve years ago my wife was picking raspberries when she scratched herself on a briar, the wound from which soon developed into a terrible sore, between her knee and ankle. Notwithstanding all we did for it, it continued discharging a thick, yellow pus. We tried medical skill on every side, with no effect. About a year ago she read of Hood's Sarsaparilla and bought a bottle and continued with it until today she is entirely well and better than ever. The sore was healed up in seven weeks. Her limbs are perfectly sound. We attribute her cure entirely to Hood's Sarsaparilla. J. JACOB N. AUGHENBAUGH, Elfers, Pa., Pa. Co., Pa."
